To Whom it may concern,

Old National Bancorp headquartered in Evansville, Indiana, previously announced its pending merger with Anchor Bancorp Wisconsin in Madison, Wisconsin. The merger of the two organizations will result in the permanent reduction of several positions in Madison and Janesville, Wisconsin.

Communications to certain affected employees began in May. The majority of affected employees were notified on May 16 and May 17. 138 full-time employees are expected to experience job loss in Madison, 1 full-time employee is expected to experience job loss in Janesville, and 1 full-time employee will experience job loss in Stevens Point. Most positions will terminate on September 30, 2016; 10 of the 140 impacted positions will terminate in 2017. The employees affected are not represented by a union and bumping rights do not exist.

Employees whose jobs will be eliminated are being supported with career transition services including resume and interview skills workshops and personal career consultation services.

The Company will ensure that employees will be paid all earned wages and agreed upon benefits at the time of their separation.

The separations will occur at the following sites:
