The Department of Workforce Development and the Wisconsin Indianhead Technical College Sponsor a Labor Law Clinic for Employers

ASHLAND - The Department of Workforce Development (DWD) and the Wisconsin Indianhead Technical College in Ashland have scheduled a Labor Law Clinic for Ashland area business leaders and employees.

Tuesday, October 5, 2004 from 8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Wisconsin Indianhead Technical College Conference Center
Room 306
2100 Beaser Ave
Ashland, WI 54806

Labor Law Clinics are educational seminars focusing on topics chosen by local employers, such as the basics of Wisconsin's Fair Employment Law, workplace harassment, deciding eligibility for unemployment benefits, and understanding the principles of Wisconsin's worker's compensation law.

Ashland Clinic Topics

- Defining Misconduct under Wisconsin's Unemployment Insurance Law
- Preparing for Unemployment Insurance Appeals Hearings
- How To Conduct A Labor Standards Self-Audit
- Fair Employment Law Basics

Presentations provide an initial orientation to the topic. Speakers are "hands-on" experts working within the program area and are available to respond to a wide range of questions about their programs. Extensive resource materials such as employer handbooks, brochures and other legal references are available free of charge.

Registration for the clinic is required and there is a $59 per person fee. A registration form is available from the DWD web site dwd.wisconsin.gov/laborlaw. To receive notification of future clinic dates, an email subscription service is available through the web site.
