

WAGE$

Department of Labor required disclosures and statements

As part of the terms and conditions of the WAGE$ award, the Department of Labor requires that the following statements be included on products created using WAGE$ funds. Not all statements are required on every document, but generally, the three will be used together. (For instance, a press release needs only the funding disclosure but program curriculum, Job Books, etc. will require all three.)

Intellectual Property Rights:

This workforce product was funded by a grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The product was created by the recipient and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This product is copyrighted by the institution that created it.

Funding Disclosure:

This project is funded whole or in part by the Department of Labor, receiving Federal funding at $5 million which reflects 100% of the project's total budget.

Creative Commons:

Insert the icon and statement in either the footer or underneath the other DOL-required language. Ensure that the final document has a live link to the license information.

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International License.