

Division of Employment and Training - Short-Term Training Program Intent to Award Projects (RFP: #ILH0018)

RFP #	Sector	Number of Grant Awards	Total Amount to Award	Estimated Businesses Served	Estimated Trainees Served
ILH0018	IT & Adv. Manufacturing	5	$1,500,000	14	227

Center for Self Sufficiency – DWD plans to award a grant of $272,385. The Center for Self Sufficiency will administer this project in partnership with the Milwaukee Area Technical College (MATC), 2 advanced manufacturing employers. The project will train 36 ex-offenders in areas critical to advanced manufacturing careers.

MAXIMUS – DWD plans to award a grant of $493,224. MAXIMUS will administer this project in partnership with CompTIA who will bring IT-Ready training to MKE. Two employers are committed to the project which will train 50 individuals including: veterans, people with disabilities, ex-offenders, and people on long-term public assistance.

Racine County Human Services – DWD plans to award a grant of $218,868. Racine County Human Services will administer the project in partnership with Gateway Technical College and three employers. The project will train 30 ex-offenders in areas critical to advanced manufacturing careers.

Milwaukee Area Workforce Funding Alliance – DWD plans to award a grant of $98,190. The Milwaukee Area Workforce Funding Alliance will administer the project called CyberSpring MKE in partnership with MATC and the Boys & Girls Club of Milwaukee. 15 youth trainees will receive CompTIA training and three employers are attached to the project.

Wisconsin Workforce Development Association – DWD plans to award a grant of $417,333. The WWDA will partner with technical colleges statewide to serve the manufacturing sector through training programs. The project will train an estimated 96 individuals across the state and impact at least 4 employers.