IT BROADBAND TECHNICIAN

IT Broadband Technician youth apprentices assist with on-site installations, troubleshooting, repairs and maintenance of telecommunications products and equipment. Technicians have direct, face-to-face contact with customers. Services include but are not limited to, telephone, video/community antenna television (CATV)/direct broadcast satellite (DBS), internet, wi-fi, or high-speed networks.

Length of Apprenticeship: One year

*Bridging

IT ESSENTIALS

IT Essentials youth apprentices gain a foundation of information technology skills applicable in many areas of IT, including desktop, software, and security skills.

Length of Apprenticeship: One year

*Bridging

IT NETWORK AND SECURITY

IT Network and Security youth apprentices assist with network systems and cybersecurity processes, including network performance, maintenance and security of systems and information.

Length of Apprenticeship: One year

*Bridging

IT SOFTWARE AND APPLICATION DEVELOPMENT

IT Software and Application Development youth apprentices gain code writing, troubleshooting and system security skills related to the development of software and applications.

Length of Apprenticeship: One year

*Bridging

Key: *Bridging indicates where a Registered Apprenticeship bridge does not exist, one may be developed.

STATE OF WISCONSIN

DWD

Department of Workforce Development