

DVR Services

The Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) can provide employment and training services to you if you have a disability that makes it hard for you to find or keep a job.

The services you receive from DVR will depend on your job goal and what you need to reach that goal.

- Career guidance and counseling
- Job search and placement assistance
- Information and referral services
- Transition-to-work services for high school students with disabilities
- Supported employment services for persons with severe disabilities; includes time-limited, on-the-job supports
- Rehabilitation technology
- Vocational and other training
- Disability and employment assessment
- Transportation
- Occupational licenses, tools and other equipment
- Assistance in small business plan development
- Interpreter services
- Rehabilitation teaching services
- Diagnosis and treatment
- Post-employment services
- Any other services that are needed for you to reach your job goal

The Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development is an equal opportunity employer and service provider. If you have a disability and need to access this information in an alternate format or need it translated to another language, please call:

800-442-3477

Vocational Rehabilitation

A proud partner of the AmericanJobCenter® network