

RESUME WORKSHEET

- Step 1: The first step is to select the information you want to use in your resume. Each person has a wide variety of experiences, even those persons who have never worked for wages. Think about your work experience, both paid and unpaid. For more information, read Thoughts on Resumes (DETJ-4658-P).
- Step 2: Review the sample resumes provided in the workbook.
- Step 3: Fill out this worksheet with your information.

You are now ready to begin drafting a resume, as all the information you will need is on the preceding charts. A good way to begin is by deciding which of your experiences or educational achievements best qualifies you for the type of job you want. This would be the first point on your resume, immediately following your name and address. It is not always necessary to show all of your employment skills on a resume, especially if some of them are not related to the job you are seeking.

Follow the examples of resumes as shown in the publications. Staff in the Wisconsin Job Center are also available to assist you.

Your Wisconsin Job Center features additional publications to guide you with your resumes and applications. These publications are available at your nearest Wisconsin Job Center (call toll-free 888/258-9966), or may be viewed on-line at <http://www.wisconsinjobcenter.org/publications>.
