

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Desk Guide: Apply for UI Benefits & Next Steps

➔ When should I apply?

- Apply for Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits the first week you are unemployed or the first week you are working fewer hours.

➔ Where do I go to apply online?

- my.unemployment.wisconsin.gov

Application process takes about 30-45 minutes. You can save your progress and complete later.

➔ What do I need to apply online?

- A username and password.
 - If you have not filed before, you will need to authorize the use of online services.
 - You may need to verify your identity as part of this step. If you need to verify your identity, you will not be able to file a claim until your identity is verified.
- A valid email address or mobile phone number.
- Your current address.
- Your social security number.
- Your Wisconsin driver license or identification number (if you have one).
- Your work history for the last 18 months, including:
 - Employers' business names.
 - Employers' addresses (including zip code).
 - Employers' phone number.
 - First and last dates of work with each employer.
 - Reason no longer working with each employer.
- If you are not a U.S. citizen, your alien registration number, document number, and expiration date.
- If you served in the military in the last 18 months, Form DD-214 (see UI claimant handbook).
- If you are a federal civilian employee, Form SF-50 or SF-8.
- If you are a union member, the name and local number of your union hall.
- If you want UI benefit payments by direct deposit, your bank's routing number and your account number.

➔ What are the next steps after I apply?

- Starting your claim is the first step. To receive payments, you must file a weekly claim for every week that you are unemployed at <https://my.unemployment.wisconsin.gov>.
- If you are required to register for work, you must register within 14 days of the date you completed your application for UI benefits. See reverse side for more information.
No UI benefits will be paid to you until you register and complete your résumé.
- Check your My UI Home page at my.unemployment.wisconsin.gov for up-to-date information about your claim. You can also sign up for direct deposit, update your tax withholdings, print an official summary of benefits paid for income verification purposes.
