

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE 1099-G TAX INFORMATION

dwd.wi.gov/uiben/1099.htm

Why do I need a 1099-G tax form?

- Unemployment insurance benefits are taxable income

What information is on a 1099-G tax form?

- Unemployment benefits paid to you
- Federal and state income taxes withheld from your benefits
- Repayments of overpaid benefits

When can I get my 1099-G tax form?

- Information for the most recent tax year will be available online mid-January, see: <https://dwd.wisconsin.gov/uiben/1099.htm>

Where do I get my 1099-G tax form?

- View or print a copy of your current or previous year forms online: <https://my.unemployment.wisconsin.gov>
- Log on using your username and password.
 - After the most recent tax year 1099-G forms are available mid-January, select 'Get your 1099-G' from 'My UI Home' in the online claimant portal (including prior years).
 - Before mid-January, to access prior year 1099-G forms, select 'My UI Summary' then select '1099-G Tax Information.'
- If you are unable to go online, call the Claimant Assistance Line at (414) 435-7069 or toll-free (844) 910-3661 during business hours.

Who do I ask about how to fill out my Form 1040 or Form 1?

- Internal Revenue Service at <http://www.irs.gov/pub525> or (800) 829-1040
- Wisconsin Department of Revenue at <http://www.revenue.wi.gov> or (608) 266-2772 or (414) 227-4000

Department of Workforce Development