

SIDES and SIDES E-Response

Save time and money by responding to unemployment insurance (UI) requests electronically.

There are two electronic systems to support UI processing in Wisconsin: SIDES E-Response and SIDES.

Employers and Employer Service Providers can respond to the following Wisconsin forms electronically:

- Separation Notice (Form UCB-16)
- Determination (Form UCB-20)
- Wage Audit Forms (UCF-350-4, UCF-17275, and UCF-17275-3)
- Computation of Unemployment Insurance Benefits (Form UCB-701)*
Only available through SIDES, not SIDES E-Response*

Eligible forms show this note and instructions:

TO REPLY ONLINE: <https://dwd.wi.gov/ui/sides>

Respond to UI Information Requests with Ease

Electronic

- Allows attachments for supporting documentation
- Reduces staff time, paperwork, and postage costs

Accurate

- Promotes accuracy on claimant eligibility decisions
- Uses data checks for complete and valid information
- Enhances UI process integrity

Secure

- Protects sensitive employer and claimant data
- Uses a nationally standardized format

Efficient

- Speeds up response time
- Reduces follow-up time and phone calls

Learn more at dwd.wi.gov/ui/sides
or scan here:

These systems are offered by the National Association of State Workforce Agencies (NASWA) in partnership with the U.S. Department of Labor.