

LEGAL HELP FOR APPEAL

Free help is available to assist you with your appeal. The Milwaukee Legal Action of Wisconsin, the Madison Unemployment Appeals Clinic and Wisconsin Judicare, Inc. offer this help.

- Legal Action of Wisconsin provides volunteer attorneys, if available. Advice is given free but will not be given over the phone. Certain eligibility requirements need to be met before being accepted.
- Unemployment Appeals Clinic provides a trained law student who will evaluate your case. Attorneys supervise the law student but will not represent you at the hearing. Not all cases are accepted. If your case is accepted, the law student will represent you at the hearing. There is no fee for services provided by the Clinic. However, you may have to pay to subpoena witnesses, if they are necessary.
- Wisconsin Judicare, Inc. provides attorney representation, if available, to claimants living in central and northern Wisconsin. Legal services are free of charge, but certain eligibility requirements must be met before a case is accepted.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO NEXT? If you disagree with the Unemployment Insurance determination, you must request a hearing by filing an appeal. Follow the instructions on the back of the determination for filing an appeal.

AFTER YOU FILE YOUR APPEAL, make an appointment:

Milwaukee:	Call the Legal Action of Wisconsin Intake Line 855-947-2529. The Intake Line is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Madison:	Call the Unemployment Appeals Clinic 608-246-HELP (4357), UW Law School. All appointments are scheduled for Monday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Labor Temple, 1602 S. Park Street, Madison.
Wausau:	Call Wisconsin Judicare, Inc. at 715-842-1681 or 800-472-1638 Toll Free. Office hours are Monday thru Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Please bring all your paperwork with you at the time of your appointment.

Legal Action of Wisconsin, Unemployment Appeals Clinic, and Wisconsin Judicare do not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, sex or other factors not relevant to eligibility for unemployment benefits.