Subject: Wisconsin Statute § 102.43(5)(c) sunset provision

Purpose: To inform that Wisconsin Statute §102.43(5)(c); the provision that allows no offset of temporary disability compensation based on wages for the first 24 hours an employee works while receiving retraining benefits under s. 102.61(1) or (1m), will sunset effective May 1, 2014.

Background: 2011 Wisconsin Act 183, § 102.43(5)(c) was created, effective April 17, 2012, which provided no reduction in compensation for vocational rehabilitation training benefits based on wages earned by employees working part-time for the first 24 hours of employment during periods of retraining.
