Definitions

Post-secondary school: Any credit-bearing education outside of the K-12 grades and is: an institution of higher education that provides not less than a 2-year program of instruction that can be used as credit toward a bachelor's degree, OR a tribally controlled college or university, OR a nonprofit educational institution offering a certificate, OR a nonprofit educational institution offering a registered apprenticeship program. See "Secondary School" for programs that don't count as schools.

Secondary school: Grades 9, 10, 11, and 12. Must be a public, private, charter, or tribal school or a home-based private educational program or an alternative education program. These don't count as schools: adult education programs under Title II of WIOA, YouthBuild programs (except for YouthBuild programs with components funded by a local school district), the Job Corps program, secondary school equivalency programs funded by a source other than the public K-12 school system, and dropout re-engagement programs.

Subject to the State's compulsory attendance law: Individuals between the ages of 6 and 18, unless they have already graduated from secondary school or are excused from attending. Individuals who turn 18 years of age during the school year remain subject to the State's compulsory attendance law until the end of the term (quarter or semester) in which they turned 18. Wis. Stats. §118.15
